Peace Students Visit Ronald McDonald House

A group of Queen of Peace students visited the Ronald McDonald House at Hope Children's Hospital in Oak Lawn on Dec. 2 for an American Government: Law and Politics class project entitled, "How to Make the World a Better Place." The following students made the trip, bringing desserts for family members currently staying at the house: Kelly Peck, Kendyl Trail, Casey Duh, Lourdes Martinez, Sandra Garcia, Jackie Kwasny, Denisse Lee and Tiffani Monreal.

As part of the project, the students also have visited Rosary Hill Home, a retirement facility, to sing Christmas carols and play card and board games, and sold jewelry made by the residents of Bonaventure House, which is part of Alexian Brothers AIDS Ministry. The students will also be going bowling with the Garden Center and sponsoring a Read-a-Thon with St. Mary Star of the Sea's after-school program.
