Queen of Peace High School
Annual Report 2005 - 2006

Hi!

My name is Nicole Paprocki, and just three years ago I was deciding what high school to attend. I looked forward to graduation from my grammar school and to time with my friends. Still, I worried about choosing the high school that best fit me. Looking back, I recognize that I made the best decision because I love my friends, my teachers, and the welcoming all-girls environment at Queen of Peace.

I never imagined how much I would achieve in just three years. My main goals were to get good grades and make new friends. However, Peace is teaching me that I also have the potential to do so much more. My teachers have opened up amazing opportunities for me to discover who I am and to understand my purpose as a Christian.

What I love most about Peace is that you can be anyone you want to be here. You can be a dancer, a chess player, a varsity softball player, the President of your class, and a straight-A student. You are challenged academically every day, and you learn so much about yourself and about life outside the classroom.

Thank you so much for your help and support. Because of your contributions, my classmates and I have been able to attend Peace, learn the newest technology out there, and take part in the most rewarding leadership and service programs available. Thank you.

Love and Peace,

Nicole Paprocki '07

Dear Alumnae, Parents, and Friends of Peace,

Blessings on you during this Advent season. I take a great deal of comfort given the promises of change and renewal the season offers. Advent is a wonderful time of contemplation that offers us opportunities for focused reflection and prayer. We wait in hope-filled anticipation of the birth of Christ, the gift of new life, and the renewal of our relationships and commitments to our ministry, our families, and our communities. This is a "life-giving" time that opens our hearts and fills us with new hope and promises for future peace, future growth and future challenge.

The Queen of Peace Community extends its heart-felt gratitude to you for your continuing support of our mission and ministry and your personal demonstration of the Dominican values of Partnership and Compassion. It is because of your generous commitment of time, energy, service, and resources that we have been able to create and maintain a rich, innovative, faith-centered, service orientated learning environment in which the young Women of Peace thrive.

A new initiative has brought excitement to all vested in securing "new life" and future prosperity for our school. A Peace alumna, who wishes to remain anonymous, has opened her heart and given us a $100,000 matching gift challenge to move our technology plan ahead of schedule. Peace would be the first all-women, Catholic school in the Archdiocese of Chicago to create a dynamic, 21st century learning environment which would give every student, at all levels, 24/7 access to their own personal wireless computer. This will initiate dramatic change in the teaching and learning experience. As you read this, we are delighted to inform you that we did meet the match and have successfully garnered the $200,000 which is 50% of our $400,000 goal to make this happen in 2007, nine months from now! The Peace Community is excited for the future possibilities that this 1:1 Tech 4 Learning Initiative has created.

This is a "life-giving" time and one alumna has made a huge difference by investing so generously in our future mission. I hope you experience the same sense of excitement and possibility for the growth of this community and elect to continue in our shared ministry; I encourage you to support this rich investment opportunity to make a difference in the lives of the Women of Peace.

May we experience peace in our hearts, in our families, in our communities, and in our world.

Kathleen M. Hanlon, Ph.D., Chief Administrator

Much gratitude to our Board of Directors whose leadership and guidance make possible our mission of a Dominican education. Barbara Schindler Allelujka '70, Donald Biernacki, Julie Burke-Concannon (Chair) '80, Barbara Dannhausen O.P., Christine Dannhausen-Brun, Kathryn Emmerson*, Sister Helen Glynn O.P., Trudi Goggin, Dr. Kathleen Hanlon, Tina Kuska '89, Sister Mark O'Loughlin O.P., Genevieve Labuda-Prangle '82, Ellen Jordan Reidy '76, Honorable Jesse Reyes*, Patricia Sonnenschein '80, Sister Janet Welsh OP (*not in picture)

Dear Queen of Peace Community,

The 2005-2006 school year was filled with difficulty as all of us who love and are committed to Queen of Peace struggled to resolve the confusion and hurt that accompanied the Board's decision to make administrative changes. The Sinsinawa Dominicans are grateful to all in the Peace community, board members, parents, administration, faculty and staff, and students for their commitment to reconciliation. Such a commitment to reconciliation is the foundation of the peace that has come to characterize students as Women of Peace and the community as a Community of Peace. Our prayer has been and continues to be for God's blessing on all that have been and will be part of such a grace-filled school community.

Sincerely,

Sr. Patricia A. Mulcahey, OP

Sister Patricia Mulcahey, OP

Living the Values of Justice and Compassion

Queen of Peace High School is sponsored by the Sinsinawa Dominican Congregation. Founded in 1847 by Venerable Father Samuel Mazzuchelli, O.P., the congregation currently sponsors eleven institutions. Through sponsorship, the Sinsinawa Dominicans carry out their mission to preach and teach.

Queen of Peace celebrates the Dominican values of truth, compassion, justice, community, and partnership. We live these values through speech and action, and we dedicate the 2006-2007 school year to justice and compassion.

To understand just how Peace students put these values into action, take a moment to read how some devote themselves to a cause:

The week of October 23, 2006 began National Red Ribbon week. Peace's Students Against Substance Abuse (SASA) demonstrated not only their pledge to remain drug free but also their commitment to help others see unavoidable truths and the need for justice. As part of the activities for National Red Ribbon Week, SASA sponsored bracelet and sucker sales. These items were laden with anti-drug messages. SASA moderator Michele Nowak noted that the bracelet sales were intended to serve as a demonstration of a student's pledge to live a drug-free life. Some of these proceeds were donated to Catholic Charities' substance abuse treatment programs.

Perhaps the most powerful message came without words. On Thursday, October 26, select students remained quiet for the entire day. They did not speak in classes nor did they speak at lunch. They dressed completely in black and painted their faces white. This impact activity was intended to symbolize the deaths caused by alcohol-related crashes. Twelve students participated in order to show that every 31 minutes a life is lost.

"Although it was uncomfortable and some people were shocked by my appearance, I knew I was doing and saying something important without speaking at all," explained frosh student Kristen O'Dwyer.

The United States Congress first declared Red Ribbon Week in 1988 in honor of Drug Enforcement Administration Agent Enrique Camarena. Agent Camarena was kidnapped and killed in Mexico in 1985 when he uncovered a multi-billion dollar drug scam involving members of the Mexican government. The purpose of the week was to increase awareness of the dangers of drug and alcohol abuse, to educate people about the devastating effects of these substances, to remember those who have lost their lives to these substances, and to challenge everyone to lead drug-free lives.

National Red Ribbon week is only one example of how our students demonstrate their commitment to truth, compassion, justice, community, and partnership. With your generous gifts, we have been able to provide the facilities, technologies, and services that enable our students to grow into strong-minded and, above all, better people. Whether it be through service projects, the opportunity to attend leadership programs, hosting special guest speakers that bring unique perspectives to our students, or expanding our student activities, know that your kindness and compassion is justly served.

Changing The World With Community Service

- 🌿 Peace's Environmental Task Force continues to visit the Chicago Portage Site monthly to clean up polluted forests, clear brush, and restore the biodiversity.
- 🌿 Peace's Poverty and Hunger Task Force raised over $1,000 during Hunger Awareness Week this November. Proceeds were donated to the Greater Chicago Food Depository and Oxfam.
- 🌿 Student Council kicked off its work with St. James Parish this November. All faculty, staff, and students were eager to continue helping those in need, especially during this holiday season. This marks the 33rd consecutive year that Peace has worked to provide a Christmas for St. James' families.
- 🌿 Peace students make monthly visits to the Greater Chicago Food Depository to re-package food for various food pantries and shelters in the Chicagoland area.

On Thursday, October 26, twelve students dressed completely in black, painted their faces white and remained quiet for the entire day, demonstrating that every 31 minutes a life is lost as a result of alcohol-related crashes.

Thank you for helping to make Peace a place where we can be ourselves. We are encouraged, empowered, motivated, and proud to be part of this unique, all-girl school community. We are Women of Peace.

Investing in Queen of Peace

When you invest in Queen of Peace, you invest in our students and thus, in the next generation of leaders. Your support helps ensure the future of our school and our commitment to continuing a tradition of values-based education that inspires those leaders to find and use their voices in the world. What better investment could there be?

Please consider the following option when making your gift:

Gifts of Cash entitle you to federal income tax deductions, subject to limitations.

Unrestricted Gifts help meet the school's greatest and most immediate needs and are appreciated for their versatility.

Restricted Gifts may be designated by the donor to fund one of the following:

-  The Peace Scholarship Fund provides scholarships and grants for students in need of financial assistance.
-  The Instructional Technologies Fund acquires new means to enhance student learning.
-  The Program/Facilities Fund expansion continues to respond to the need for improvements.
-  The Peace Board Reserve Fund, initiated in 1986, will secure a strong future for Queen of Peace High School with its continued growth.

Matching Gifts

By their individual gifts, alumnae and friends secure important funds for the school. Many companies offer a matching gift program to encourage their employees to contribute to a favorite charity. You can double or even triple the value of your gift if your employer or spouse's employer participates in a matching gift program.

A Bequest

To provide for Queen of Peace in your will, you need only have your attorney include a statement such as: "I give and bequeath to Queen of Peace High School, Burbank, Illinois, a) % of my estate; b) the sum of ____; c) the following asset/property; d) all the rest and residue of my estate for general purposes.

We welcome all inquiries. Through your generosity, the vitally important work of Queen of Peace High School can continue. For more information, please contact Cindy Kmetty, Development Director, at 708-458-7600, Ext. 250 or via email at kmettyc@queenofpeacehs.org.

We are grateful for the tremendous financial support of foundations, corporations, alumnae, board members, faculty, staff, and friends of Queen of Peace High School. We have made every effort to recognize each of our donors for the fiscal year of July 1, 2005 to June 30, 2006. Please notify the Development Office of any errors so that we may rectify and correct our records.

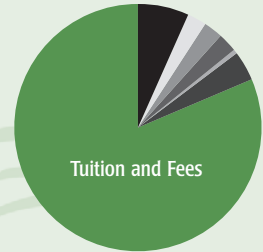

We are grateful for the opportunity to develop our leadership capabilities. As St. Catherine of Siena Scholars, we are confident in our abilities to pursue independent research in college.

We rely on you in order to continue instilling a passion for learning, leading, and helping others. Our young women thrive in the world because of this Dominican education. At the time of graduation, our students take the next steps of their lives knowing that they have built a strong faith, possess superb confidence, and have cultivated lasting friendships. Your support is the stepping stone to helping future Women of Peace find and use their voices.

Scholarships and Financial Aid

We provide equal opportunity to the young women who choose a Peace education. Your contribution is how we make that possible. You put families' dreams of giving their daughters a unique high school experience within reach. Through direct financial assistance from outside sources, foundations and grant contributions for disbursement through the Scholarship Fund, and interest from your investments, Queen of Peace provided assistance for 250 students during the 2005-2006 school year in the amount of $358,637.

Event Sponsors, Donors, In-Kind Donations, Service & Matching Gifts

Our fundraising activities are crucial to the success of Queen of Peace. We simply would not exist without the support of event sponsors and donors, those who provide financial support, in-kind donations or services, and those who match the gifts of individuals giving to the school. We teach our students not only to know the Dominican values but to live them. Your kindness and giving shows our students first hand examples of those values embodied.

*"Thank you for your very kind donation which has allowed my daughter to continue her education at Peace.
 Your generosity will make a remarkable difference in her future, and for that we will always be grateful. ~ I can assure you as a parent, I will make my best effort to lead her to a productive and positive life, hoping this will also open doors for professional success."*

Commemorative Program

We are forever thankful to those who have participated in our Commemorative Program. Your wish to remember loved ones through a special gift to the school is a treasure to us. Whether for a birthday, anniversary, retirement, get well, or memorial, we are so honored that you have thought of us during these important times in your lives. When prayers and support are most needed, commemoratives offer the faith-filled embrace of the entire Peace community.

Community is a cornerstone of our institution. We respect and value each and every person in our community. This was none the more visible than in our fundraiser for a fellow student who was too ill to complete her senior year. Thank you for choosing to be part of our community.

Committed to the Women of Peace

Queen of Peace is committed to providing the resources and programs necessary to enhance the educational experience of our young women. By fostering the intellectual, emotional and spiritual foundation of our students, they will be better prepared for life – to embrace challenge, to become leaders and to grow into capable and accomplished young women.

We extend our most sincere gratitude to the members of the Peace faculty, staff, and administration. The devotion, energy, and talents of these people both inside and outside the classroom are unmatched. Our focus is the students, and our faculty is always eager to inspire our students to become great leaders, critical thinkers, and risk-takers.

Mission

Queen of Peace High School is a Catholic Sinsinawa Dominican secondary school community educating a diverse adolescent female population. We are committed to preparing women not only for college but for lifelong learning by empowering intellectual, spiritual, moral and emotional growth. Our mission calls us to search for truth, to encourage collaboration, to instill leadership, to promote dedication to service, and to inspire a passion for peace and justice.

Queen of Peace High School is a leader in women's education. We offer:

- 👉 A faith- and values-centered Catholic community
- 👉 A strong college prep curriculum for every student
- 👉 An empowering all-girls environment
- 👉 Exciting opportunities for leadership and service
- 👉 A championship sports program
- 👉 A spirit-filled community with many activities, clubs and organizations
- 👉 A place to belong, make new friends and have fun

Queen of Peace is a Sinsinawa Dominican Catholic high school where independent young women think clearly, live courageously and lead creatively.
