

For immediate release
December 21, 2010

Press contact: Erin Foley
Marketing/PR Coordinator
(708) 496-4752

Queen of Peace Chamber Ensemble Performs at Beverly Country Club

Fresh off their annual Winter Performing Arts Show, members of Queen of Peace High School's Chamber Ensemble performed at Beverly Country Club's (8700 S. Western Ave.) Holiday Luncheon on Dec. 17. The choral students, under the direction of Bridget Kancler, sang holiday carols for club members. Queen of Peace's Choral Department, which consists of Frosh Chorus, Show Choir and Chamber Ensemble, also recently put on an Autumn Choral Concert and sang at the Burbank Park District as part of the city's Winterfest celebration.

Guests were treated to a variation of songs, including Deo Gracias from "A Ceremony of Carols," A'Soalin', Gloria Deo, Carol of the Bells – a jazz arrangement, 'Tis the Gift to Be Simple, Let All Who Sing Be Merry, Dona Nobis Pacem, as well as traditional carols.

"The students joyfully entertained," said principal Mary Kay Nickels, who attended the performance with Queen of Peace president Anne O'Malley '75. "To watch and to experience the mutual enjoyment of the singers and the audience was a Christmas treat."

Photo caption:

Pictured (from left): junior Katie Miller, junior Marisa Winningham, senior Danielle Alonso, junior Lauren Bourret and sophomore Sara Montes.

Second photo caption:

Members of Queen of Peace High School's Chamber Ensemble sang Christmas carols at Beverly Country Club's Holiday Luncheon on Dec. 17.

#####