

For immediate release
May 23, 2011

Press contact: Erin Foley
PR/Marketing Coordinator
(708) 496-4752

Students Inducted into Queen of Peace French National Honor Society

Six sophomores and one junior were inducted into Queen of Peace High School's French National Honor Society in a ceremony May 12. French National Honor Society moderator Madame Jura Jancys and principal Mary Kay Nickels welcomed the new candidates. Each candidate and continuing member lit a candle and pledged to continue their efforts to instruct and transmit to future generations their love for the language and culture of France. FNHS students must excel in French, and once inducted, are required to tutor other students in French.

The following students were inducted:

Sophomores – Lauren Crotty, Paola Gomez, Jessica Mulica, Marguerite Nowacki,
Vanessa Ramirez and Stephanie Sada

Junior – Marisol Campos

The following students were re-inducted:

Juniors – Ruby Alvarez, Lily Carmody, Colleen Kennedy, Kelly Kennedy, Natalia Majerczyk, Allyssa Mejia, Gina Miglieri, Janet Page and Kaylynn Yerkes

Seniors - Yesenia Arteaga, Megan Rizzo and Aubrie Rizzo

####

Photo caption:

Six sophomores and one junior were inducted into Queen of Peace's French National Honor Society in a ceremony on May 12. Twelve students were re-inducted into the honor society. Pictured front row (from left): Lauren Crotty, Vanessa Ramirez, Jessica Mulica, Marisol Campos, Stephanie Sada, Marguerite Nowacki and Paola Gomez. Second row (from left): Janet

Page, Ruby Alvarez, Yesenia Arteaga, Allyssa Mejia and Kelly Kennedy. Back row (from left):
Gina Miglieri, Colleen Kennedy, Aubrie Rizzo, Megan Rizzo, Lily Carmody and Natalia
Majerczyk. Not pictured – Kaylynn Yerkes

