

For immediate release
May 19, 2010

Press contact: Erin Foley
PR/Marketing Coordinator
(708) 458-7600, Ext. 252

Students Inducted into Queen of Peace French National Honor Society

Ten sophomores and one senior were inducted into Queen of Peace High School's French National Honor Society in a ceremony May 4. French National Honor Society moderator Madame Jura Jancys welcomed the new candidates. Each candidate and continuing member lit a candle and pledged to continue their efforts to instruct and transmit to future generations their love for the language and culture of France. FNHS students must excel in French, and once inducted, are required to tutor other students in French.

The following students were inducted:

Sophomores – Ruby Alvarez, Lily Carmody, Emily Douglas, Colleen Kennedy, Natalia Majerczyk, Allyssa Mejia, Gina Miglieri, Janet Page and Kaylynn Yerkes

Senior – Lauren Juarez

The following students were re-inducted:

Juniors – Yesenia Arteaga, Megan Rizzo and Aubrie Rizzo

Seniors – Julia Amador, Maggie Boyer, Connie Cunanan, Heather Kierzek, Sara Majewski and Michael Strauch

Photo captions:

Queen of Peace French National Society officers (left to right) Heather Kierzek (Treasurer), Michaelae Strauch (Secretary), Sara Majewski (Vice-President) and Julia Amador (President) recite a pledge during a re-induction ceremony on May 4.

Ten sophomores were inducted into Queen of Peace's French National Honor Society in a ceremony on May 4. Pictured front row (from left): Lily Carmody, Emily Douglas, Janet Page, Kelly Kennedy and Ruby Alvarez; back row (from left): Allyssa Mejia, Kaylynn Yerkes, Gina Miglieri, Colleen Kennedy and Natalia Majerczyk.