Queen of Peace Announces Illinois State Scholars

Queen of Peace is proud to announce that nine seniors have been designated 2011 Illinois State Scholars by the Illinois Student Assistance Commission (ISAC), which is recognizing 19,345 high school students from across the state as this year's State Scholars. The award is based on a student's performance on the ACT, SAT or Prairie State Achievement Exam, and their class rank at the end of their junior year. Illinois State Scholars rank in the top 10 percent of high school seniors from 752 schools across the state.

Queen of Peace's 2011 Illinois State Scholars are Sara De Van (St. Symphorosa), Lindsey Frederick (St. Gerald), Leah Karge (St. Louis de Montfort), Erin Kolasinski (St. Symphorosa), Savana Martin (St. Albert the Great), BriElle Munizzi (Kinzie School), Mary Kate Murray (St. Gerald), Dorota Murzydlo (St. Jane de Chantal) and Lauren Vitrano (St. Symphorosa).

"The Queen of Peace community is extremely proud of our 2011 Illinois State Scholars and their commitment to academic excellence," principal Mary Kay Nickels said. "These students are among the best and brightest in the state and we applaud them, their families and the faculty of Queen of Peace High School on this outstanding accomplishment."
