

For immediate release
January 22, 2010

Press contact: Erin Foley
Marketing/PR Coordinator
(708) 458-7600, Ext. 252

Peace Partners with Oak Lawn Library to Bring Art to the Community

During the month of January, artwork from Queen of Peace students in Digital Arts, Ceramics, Painting, and Independent Studio was on display at the Oak Lawn Public Library, 9427 S. Raymond Ave., in the formal art gallery on the second floor.

On display are student self-portraits, digital work, images of ceramic pots and dyed silk hoop paintings. January's exhibit marks the third time artwork from Peace students has been displayed.

Photo captions:

Dyed silk hoop paintings created by Queen of Peace art students set against the second-floor window of the Oak Lawn Library.

Self-portraits painted by Queen of Peace art students. Peace students' artwork will be on display at the Oak Lawn Library until the end of January.

#####