

For immediate release
Sept. 27, 2010

Press contact: Erin Foley
PR/Marketing Coordinator
(708) 458-7600, Ext. 252

Peace to Host “Volley for the Cure” Game

Queen of Peace High School will face Mother McAuley on the volleyball court Tuesday, Oct. 12 at Queen of Peace, both competitively and to raise money for breast cancer research and awareness.

Peace and McAuley will participate in “Volley for the Cure – Pack the Place in Pink” with the junior varsity game beginning at 5 p.m. The varsity game will follow at 6 p.m. All proceeds will benefit the Susan G. Komen Foundation.

A number of special events are scheduled for the afternoon, said Peace athletic director Darlene Graf. T-shirts will be sold, a 50-50 raffle will be offered and participants will have other opportunities to win prizes. Peace student-athletes will wear pink shirts, and spectators dressed in pink will receive a ticket to win a door prize.

“This event is dedicated to all women and men who have been touched by breast cancer with the hope that this devastating disease will one day be cured. Please join us for this special event and help us to “Pack the Place in Pink,” Graf said.

Admission is $4 for adults, $2 for students and seniors. Children 10 and younger are free. Queen of Peace is located at 7659 S. Linder in Burbank.

During the school day on Oct. 12 at Peace, SportsTownChicago.com, a college radio station based in Lombard, will be broadcasting a Lunchroom Live show and interviewing students in honor of the Volley for the Cure game against Mother McAuley. The varsity game will also be broadcast live.

Photo caption:

Queen of Peace High School will face Mother McAuley on the volleyball court Tuesday, Oct. 12 at Queen of Peace, both competitively and to raise money for breast cancer research and awareness. Peace volleyball players will also be selling T-Shirts and holding raffles for prizes.

####