

For immediate release
May 18, 2010

Press contact: Erin Foley
Marketing/PR Coordinator
(708) 458-7600, Ext. 252

Peace Hosts Performing Arts Show

Queen of Peace High School held its annual spring performing arts show April 30-May 1. “Decades: A Journey Through Song and Dance” showcased the talents of the Peace Dance Company, treble choir, show choir, pops choir and Chamber Singers. More than 100 young women participated in 32 performances. Featured routines included songs from Beyoncé, The Beatles, Elvis, Glenn Miller, Madonna and Michael Jackson.

More than 200 grammar school students from Sts. Cyril and Methodius, Queen of Martyrs, Visitation and Most Holy Redeemer also attended a matinee performance on April 30.

####

Photo captions:

Peace students (from left) junior Rebeca Valencia, junior Bobbi Benegas and senior Suraya Kim perform a ballet routine to Shania Twain’s “When You Kiss Me” during Peace’s spring performing arts show on April 30.

Peace students Diana Rodriguez, Brittany Wozniak, Marissa Vazquez, Suraya Kim and Alyssa Garza take a curtain call during Peace's performing arts show on April 30. More than 100 young women participated in 32 performances.