Students Inducted into Queen of Peace Spanish National Honor Society

Sixteen Queen of Peace students were inducted into the Spanish National Honor Society (SNHS) on Oct. 27. The following candidates had to meet the requisites of SNHS in order to be inducted, including a GPA of 3.75 in Spanish and 3.5 overall GPA: juniors Malissa Arroyo, Paris Clark, Sara De Van, Elizabeth Famera, Lindsey Frederick, Sydney Hardwick, Caitlin Hecker, Brianna Hovanec, Leah Karge, Erin Kolasinski, Savana Martin, Michelle Maturlak, Valerie Munoz, Mary Kate Murray, Stacie Seweryn and Erin Yurko. Peace's SNHS moderator is Spanish teacher Vanesa Garcia.

The Spanish National Honor Society develops a sense of leadership and respect for the Hispanic culture. Members of SNHS offer tutoring throughout the week and participate in Hispanic-centered service projects. The new members of SNHS join 13 continuing members.
