Students inducted into the Queen of Peace Spanish National Honor Society

Several Queen of Peace students were inducted into the Spanish National Honor Society Oct. 20. SNHS is an honor society for students who excel in the Spanish language and have maintained at least a 3.3 GPA overall. The girls offer tutoring four days a week to the QOP community as well as participating in other Hispanic centered service projects throughout the year. Inducted were: (top row, left to right) seniors Amanda Ranftl, Victoria Vancoevorden, Meredith Rivera, Cristina Mikus and juniors Lorraine Munoz, Allison Kirwan, and Caitlin Guerrero; (middle row) senior Dana Romito, juniors Erica Vrkljan and Kelly Kosiewicz, senior Lupe Jimenez, juniors Kelly Gierman, Megan Graves, Michelle Murtaugh; and (front row) seniors Tania Stanford, Caitlin Coffey, and Patricia Puente, juniors Diana Rodriguez, Markella Sarantopulos, Emily Boyle, Alexis Llamas, Sara Seweryn and Kaitlyn Kurowski. Moderator Ms. Nunez is pictured in the middle row. Not pictured: Marcella Perez, a junior.
