

For immediate release
May 19, 2010

Press contact: Erin Foley
Marketing/PR Coordinator
(708) 458-7600, Ext. 252

Archdiocese Honors Peace Students with Awards

Several Queen of Peace students were recognized April 18 with Chicago Vicariate V Youth Leadership Awards at the Lexington House, led by Bishop Gustavo Garcia-Siller, M.Sp.S.

“These young women were nominated for taking a leading role in Catholicism and promoting the Dominican values of the school,” said campus minister Kathleen Greenan. “They have gone above and beyond in their efforts to be of service.”

Emily Boyle - Service and Justice

Anna Dron – Leadership

Megan Graves - Catechesis, Service on the Archdiocesan Women’s and Youth Councils

Sarah Majewski - Prayer and Worship

Tiffani Monreal - Peer Ministry

Bobbi Benegas - Advocacy through St. Linus

Diana Rodriguez - Prayer and Worship through St. Mary Star of the Sea

Emily Boyle was also one of four awardees whose essay was picked to be read aloud at the event.

Photo caption:

Queen of Peace Vicariate V Leadership Award Recipients (left to right): Sarah Majewski (Prayer and Worship), Emily Boyle (Service and Justice), Anna Dron (Leadership), Megan Graves (Catechesis), Diana Rodriguez (Prayer and Worship through St. Mary Star of the Sea), Tiffani Monreal (Peer Ministry) and campus minister Kathleen Greenan. Not pictured: Bobbi Benegas (Advocacy through St. Linus).

###