Queen of Peace senior to be lauded by Cook County Sheriff

Queen of Peace High School senior Megan Marshall (4100 W. 81st Place, Chicago) received the Cook County Sheriff's Youth Service Medal of Honor in a ceremony Monday, Nov. 17, at McCormick Place in Chicago.

Megan was lauded for her volunteer service, which shows her commitment to others and demonstrates good citizenship, said Cook County Sheriff Tom Dart who presented the award.

She has earned more than 270 volunteer service hours and continues to volunteer.
